----------------------	------------

Sew the wallhanging with a 1 cm seam allowance.

- Glue or sew tape down the middle of the antique rose fabric. Be accurate. Secure with pins.
- Sew the curry, green, antique rose and rust-coloured pieces together as shown in the drawing. Press seams flat.
- Sew the green and black pieces together at the lower edge (as shown in the drawing). Press seams flat.
- Sew the black piece (15 x 96 cm) to the rust-coloured piece. Press seam flat.
- Place front and backing together, right sides together. Sew at sides and bottom. Mitre corners, turn and press.
- Glue or sew metallic tape to the lower edge of the wallhanging. Fold tape ends 1 cm to the wrong side.
- Overlock or zig-zag the top edge of the wallhanging.
- Fold the top edge 5 cm onto the wrong side. Stitch to form a channel.
- Insert the dowel pin into the channel. Cut 2 lengths of round leather cord. Tie cords around dowel pin to hang.
